

Colorado Gives Day FAQ's

Q: What is Colorado Gives Day?

A: Colorado Gives Day is a special day when Colorado residents come together to support their favorite nonprofit. ColoradoGives.org encourages charitable giving by providing donors with comprehensive, objective, and up-to-date information about Colorado nonprofits. Donations on Colorado Gives Day, as well as prescheduled gifts, will qualify for an incentive boost from Community First Foundation and First Bank, allowing your donation to go further.

Q: Why give to Catholic Charities on Colorado Gives Day?

A: Throughout northern Colorado, Catholic Charities of Denver has been actively answering the call of Jesus to serve those struggling with difficulties due to poverty and other challenging circumstances. We are committed to doing everything we can to serve the poor and marginalized because that is what we are called to do. We serve tens of thousands of people each year in seven ministries: Shelter Services, Marisol Services (for women), Early Childhood Education, Archdiocesan Housing, Counseling, Community Outreach and Faith in Action.

Q: How do I make a donation?

A: Go to coloradogives.org/CCDenver and click on the "Donate" button, and follow the step-by-step instructions. The minimum donation amount is $5.

Q: Why wait until November 1st to donate?

A: November 1st is the first day Colorado Gives Day prescheduling opens. This means that your donation will count towards the incentive boost when you preschedule after November 1st.

Q: Is my donation tax deductible?

A: Yes! Catholic Charities is a certified non-profit. All donations are tax deductible.

Q: How do I designate my donation for a tax credit?

A: Catholic Charities offers two different tax credits, The Enterprise Zone Tax Credit and The Child Care Contribution Credit.
